Job Brief

Are you looking for a junior designer position where you can use the programs you love and develop your skills? Are you interested in working for a rapidly growing marketing & design agency that specialises in live entertainment and the arts? Do you like the idea of working remotely?

Then this could be the perfect position for you!

Goldups Lane is a boutique marketing and design agency. We are looking for a Junior Artworker to come and join our growing team to support the studio and design side of the business. This position is ideal for someone who is looking for an opportunity to develop their skills on the job, grow their industry knowledge, and grow with our fastly-expanding company in the design department.

As a junior position, we are looking for candidates with some previous experience who are truly passionate about design & entertainment looking to step into the industry. A degree in a design field is advantageous, and we're looking for someone who can become more permanent as the business grows.

Potential roles within the Job:

- Daily artwork creation in advertising; including billboards, press ads, digital screens & much more!
- Daily print proofing for event-based print runs.
- Being involved in new artwork conception.
- Auditing client assets.
- Creating additional brand assets for current and prospective clients.
- Liaising with clients and venues for proofing.
- Communicating effectively with the design / marketing teams
- Administrative tasks within the studio to maintain its effectiveness, as well as internal / client web design.

Skills required:

- 1 year(s) previous experience within agency setting.
- Enthusiasm within the entertainment industry. (Particularly theatre) advantageous.
- Intermediate in Adobe CC – Specifically Photoshop, Illustrator and InDesign.
- Work effectively within a team-based setting.
- Highly organized.
- Self-starter, being able to WFH effectively.
- Professional set up for multi-media design tools.
- Excellent communication
- Excellent written & spoken English
- Interest in Video editing, Motion and web design is a plus.
